

Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Squadron Reciprocal Clubs 2023

Membership at the RNSYS offers an experience rich in beautiful surroundings, exciting recreation and an inviting ambience...here...across the country...and even abroad. Through its many contacts in the sailing community, RNSYS members have been warmly welcomed at many yacht clubs around the globe. Should you be travelling and wish to visit a private club in a certain area, please contact Callie MacDonald, Communications & Membership Manager, (902) 477-5653 Ext 1 then 100 or communications@rnsys.com for assistance with this matter.

Members are encouraged to include specific dates and the names of all persons joining them when submitting a request for a letter of introduction.

The RNSYS is pleased to share reciprocal privileges with the following clubs:

Canada

- Glencoe Club
- Rideau Club
- Royal Canadian Yacht Club
- Royal Glenora Club
- Royal Hamilton Yacht Club
- Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club
- Royal Vancouver Yacht Club
- Royal Victoria Yacht Club

United States of America

- Annapolis Yacht Club
- Boston Yacht Club
- Corinthian Yacht Club
- Eastern Yacht Club
- Norfolk Yacht and Country Club
- Palm Beach Yacht Club
- The Club at Treasure Island
- Seattle Yacht Club

International

- Little Ship Club
- Republic of Singapore Yacht Club
- Royal Bermuda Yacht Club
- Royal Cork Yacht Club
- Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club
- Royal Irish Yacht Club
- Royal New Zealand Yacht Squadron
- Royal Norfolk & Suffolk Yacht Club
- Royal Over-Seas League
- Royal South Australian Yacht Squadron
- Royal Yacht Club of Tasmania
- St. Thomas Yacht Club
- Royal Thames Yacht Club
- The West Indies Yacht Club
- Berliner Yacht Club
- City University Club

